Guidelines for Direct Admission at Institute Level

1. Basis of Merit for Spot Admission:

Spot admissions shall be made strictly on the basis of the merit of eligible candidates who have applied for direct admission at the institute level. Candidates who have already been admitted to the concerned institute shall not be considered for the spot admission round in the same institute. The merit rank shall be determined strictly in accordance with the rules prescribed in the REAP-2026 Information Booklet regarding rank and priority determination.

2. Categories of Vacancies:

Spot admissions shall be conducted against the available vacancies (after the internal sliding) in the following categories:

- Open (Non-Reserved) category;
- Reserved categories, namely EWS, OBC, MBC, SC, ST and TSP;
- Female seats under the Open (Non-Reserved) category; and
- Female seats under the respective reserved categories.

3. Merger of Remaining Female Category Vacancies:

After completing admissions against the female reservation seats, any remaining vacancies in the female category shall be merged into the corresponding Open/Reserved category, as applicable.

4. Merger of TSP Vacancies:

Any remaining vacancies under the TSP Open category shall subsequently be merged into the ST Open category.

5. Merger of Reserved Category Vacancies:

After completing admissions against the respective reserved categories, any remaining vacancies under EWS, OBC, MBC, SC and ST categories shall be considered for the admission in the Open (Non-Reserved) category.

6. Supernumerary Seats:

Supernumerary vacancies under the Kashmiri Migrant (KM) and Tuition Fee Waiver Scheme (TFWS) categories shall also be considered for spot admissions. No merger of vacancies shall be permitted in these categories.

7. Admission Against Open Category Vacancies:

After completing the category-wise admissions as specified above, admission against the remaining vacancies in the Open (Non-Reserved) category as well as other vacant reservation seats shall be carried out strictly on the basis of General/open rank-merit.

8. Vacancies Arising Due to Withdrawal/Non-Reporting:

Any vacancy arising due to the withdrawal of a candidate or non-reporting for physical reporting shall be considered under the same category in which the concerned candidate was originally allotted/admitted. Such vacancies shall be included for direct admission at the institute level.
